

NOTICE(Final year UG and PG students)

- As per Bangalore University's circular dated 16/05/2019, all final year students are expected to register in NAD (National Academic Depository) portal. Final year UG and PG students are hereby directed to register in NAD on or before the 20th of March 2020. (The NAD registration procedure is given separately on the college website under Academics-convocation).
- You can register in NAD with your Adhar number, which is preferable. Those who do not have an Adhar number also can register, but the registration number will be given on a later date by the NAD.
- Please make sure that your current phone number is linked to your Adhar if you register with your Adhar number.
- All UG students must select Bangalore University and PG students must select Bengaluru central University during the registration procedure.
- Once the NAD registration number is received, fill up the Google Form available in the link given https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1c1jUovmjvqj2r6SJKftls_SQhkrvg-LId8wsxN635s/edit
- The college will verify the authenticity of the student and will approve the registration.
- Now, the student has registered in the NAD portal as a student at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous) under Bangalore University. (For PG students it is Bengaluru central university)
- University will notify for the 56th convocation in September or October 2020. (For PG students it is the first convocation under Bengaluru Central University). Those who have completed the programme successfully may apply for the same.
- The specified convocation fee must be paid in the Bangalore University /Bengaluru Central University online payment portal respectively after their notification.
- After the payment of the convocation fee, all relevant data in the convocation2020 handle must be filled. This handle will be available in the college website.
- Filled in application form , passport size photo, photo copy of the NAD registration acknowledgement , University fee payment receipt and copies of the marks card must be submitted to the college after payment of fees.