NOTICE

Ref: Ac.C 21/1 dated the 20th November 2021

The following resolution was placed before the Academic council for its approval as the whole resolution or with amendments therein without disturbing the requirements.

Resolution: If the difference in marks between revaluation and the first valuation is equal to or less than 15% of the maximum marks for which the examination was conducted, the average of these two marks will be considered as the marks scored by the candidate in that course, even if this mark is less than the marks given in the first evaluation. If the difference in marks between revaluation and the first valuation is more than 15% of the maximum marks for which the examination was conducted, the answer script will be subjected to the third valuation. The marks scored by the student will be the average of two nearby marks. This is applicable for the challenge valuation of the PG answer scripts also. This will come into effect from 2021-22 academic year.
