NOTIFICATION

Sub: Changing second language (L2) option for students of I semester (2021-22). regarding.

As per the resolution passed in the academic council in the year 2017, the students of first semester have an option to change the second language (L2). Those students who wish to change their second language may apply for the same in the format given on our college website. The last date to submit the application for changing the second language is by 11 am on 2nd April, 2022. The duly completed application form has to be submitted in person to Ms. Rashmi in the IT cell on campus.

Students opting to change the second language should be aware of the regulations passed in the academic council. The text of the resolution is reproduced here for your kind information.

Ref.Ac.C 2017/7 dated 18-03-2017

Resolution: It is resolved to allow a student of an undergraduate course, after completing the first-semester examination but within two weeks of starting the second semester, to request for a change of the second language he/she had opted for during the admission. The attendance for the dropped language can be transferred to the newly selected language, but the candidate must repeat the CA and SE in the next available chance. This will be implemented from 2017-18 batch onwards.
