OUT OF TURN RESULTS AND CERTIFICATES

The 6th semester UG and 4th semester PG students who need their semester examination results earlier than the proposed dates published already on the college website may do so by applying for the same. However, normally, the results will be available only after 6 days from the day of the last examination for that programme.

The Final semester UG and PG students who need their final certificates earlier than the proposed dates for the issue of Tatkal certificates published already on the college website may do so by applying for the same. However, normally, the certificates will be available only after 6 days from the day of the last examination for that programme. Final year students waiting for the supplementary results for the earlier semester(s) also may apply for the same.

Results and certificates will be issued within one working day of applying for the same, provided the other conditions are satisfied. Certificate will not be issued on holidays.

Candidate who want out of turn results and certificates must pay Rs 3000/- along with the fee for Tatkal certificates (Rs 3200/-) and fill the Google form using the link attached.
